

Campion School, Athens Greece

JOB ADVERT

Position:	Science lab technician
Contract:	Part-time initially, with the potential of full-time in the near future. To start as soon as possible.
Pay Scale:	Campion School pay scale
Reports to:	Head of Science

Founded in 1970, Campion's purpose is to provide a first-class education for boys and girls aged between three and eighteen, fostering abilities both in the field of academic and general education and in sporting activities and the performing arts. Our IB results are fantastic, with nearly all our pupils progressing to higher education. In 2022, our IB average was 38 points and amongst one of the best in Europe. Last year, it remained 5 points above the world average. Our most recent ISI inspection (March 2023) judged the Educational Quality we provide to our pupils to be excellent.

We seek to appoint a lab technician to work in the Science department. They will be tasked with supporting teaching staff in the preparation and cleaning of lesson materials by ensuring that all equipment requisitions are completed to the highest standards and that all laboratories and storage spaces are safe and in good order.

We have a strong Science department that works collaboratively and is fully supportive of both staff and students. The successful candidate will work closely with the science team, sharing their passion for the students learning journey. They should be dedicated to education and invest time in order to develop their practice with a desire to become part of the Campion community.

Further information regarding the vacancy can be obtained from the school's website, www.campion.edu.gr/employment/ Please apply by completing the application form, addressed to the Headmaster - Michael Henderson, headmaster@campion.edu.gr. Applications should be submitted no later than Friday, 22 March 2024, 10:00 am (Greek time). Interviews will happen shortly afterwards. However, we reserve the right to invite candidates for interview prior to the closing date and to close vacancies early if we have sufficient suitable candidates. Therefore, we encourage interested applicants to submit an application as soon as possible.
