

Campion School, Athens Greece

JOB ADVERT

Position:	Teacher of Greek with the possibility of a responsibility allowance for the right candidate.
Contract:	Full-time, fixed Term, from 1 st September 2024.
Pay Scale:	Campion School pay scale
Reports to:	Head of Greek / Head of Juniors

Founded in 1970, Campion's purpose is to provide a first-class education for boys and girls aged between three and eighteen, fostering abilities both in the field of academic and general education, and in sporting activities and the performing arts. Our IB results are consistently 5 points above world average with nearly all our pupils progressing to higher education. Our most recent ISI inspection judged Campion to be excellent in every category.

Due to staff retirement and expansion, we are seeking to appoint two teachers to teach Greek to Junior School children. For the right candidate, there is the possibility of a responsibility allowance for the coordination of Greek cultural activities.

The successful applicant will teach Greek from Year 1 to Year 6 to both native language and foreign language learners. They will have experience teaching within either an International School or British School environment. They will be a strong team-player and demonstrate an ability to work collaboratively. Campion is committed to the continual professional development of its staff and training is available where appropriate.

What we are looking for:

- A recognised teaching qualification.
- Excellent teaching skills.
- In-depth knowledge of the pedagogy of teaching Greek to Junior School aged children, including modern teaching methods.
- Ability to teach Greek across all Key Stages in the Junior School (essential).
- Experience of being part of a highly successful department and school.
- Ability to work effectively both individually and as part of a team.
- Ability to communicate effectively, both orally and in writing, with a range of audiences in both Greek and English.
- Ability to use ICT to facilitate learning and for effective management and administration.
- An awareness of the issues arising from teaching students in an international school setting.

Campion School, Athens Greece

- Ability to effectively assess and track students' progress.
- Ability to work under pressure and to deadlines.
- Willingness to take on multiple tasks
- Resilience and optimism; someone who is willing to go the extra mile in the busy life of the school.

Further information regarding the vacancy can be obtained from the school's website, www.campion.edu.gr/employment/. Please apply by completing the application form, addressed to the Headmaster, Michael Henderson, headmaster@campion.edu.gr. Applications should be submitted no later than Thursday, 9 May 2024. Interviews will happen shortly after. However, we reserve the right to invite candidates for interviews before the closing date and close vacancies early if we have sufficient suitable candidates. Therefore, we encourage interested applicants to submit an application as soon as possible.

Important notes:

Greek Applicants - You must hold a relevant degree and have completed the registry for teachers of private schools (Epetirida), or hold the qualifications to do so. Please note that international qualifications are not recognised as qualified teacher status for Greek candidates within Greece.

International Applicants - Your qualifications must be from the same country as your passport. You must also hold a relevant teaching qualification (QTS with completed NQT or equivalent) again from the country of your passport. Please note that the iPGCE is not currently recognised in Greece.

Campion School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers, the Disclosure and Barring Service (UK) and/or the International Child Protection Certificate (and country equivalents).
